

THOMSON REUTERS

Customer Announcement

Marque d'or joins the Carswell Team

Bilingual corporate services raise the bar for Canadian corporate, legal customers in Quebec

Carswell, Canada's leading provider of intelligent information and research solutions to the legal, finance and human resources markets has acquired Marque d'or, a well-known corporate services provider to the Quebec legal community with a 50-year history.

Marque d'or is trusted for its expertise in incorporations, corporate name searches, document retrieval and corporate records. It is a company committed to service excellence and continual improvement. Their suite of corporate service offerings, including minute books and specialized legal supplies, has made Marque d'or the ideal solution for legal and business professionals in Quebec.

"Marque d'or is a highly respected organization in the Quebec marketplace and we are excited to bring these two businesses together," said Don Van Meer, president and CEO of Carswell. "As part of the Carswell team, Marque d'or, a leader in corporate services offerings in the Quebec marketplace, will partner with Cyberbahn, a leader in providing corporate and litigation services in Ontario, to bring the best of both businesses to our customers across Canada."

"This is an excellent opportunity for Marque d'or to expand its coverage across Canada and enhance its capabilities by leveraging the market position and capabilities of Carswell and the global Thomson Reuters Corporation," said Marque d'or CEO, Bryan Haley. "I am especially pleased by our partnership with Canada's market leader and am excited that our existing clients will quickly benefit from enriched offerings. I also look forward to building our business and delivering even more powerful corporate service solutions to legal professionals in Canada."